

Carrera Panamericana 1954

Driving a Porsche 550 Spyder, Hans Herrmann brilliantly won the Small-Sports Class in the fifth and final Carrera Panamericana in 1954. He achieved an incredible third place overall taking the massive power of the two five litre Ferraris to beat him. The Porsche expedition to Mexico was master minded by Huschke von Hanstein who was both Racing Director and Press Officer for Porsche.

Edition signed by Hans Herrmann,
Huschke von Hanstein

Print size 33"x25" (84cm x 63cm)

Image size 26"x17" (66cm x 45cm)