

„Formidable Fortress”

December 31st., 1944. B-17 Flying Fortresses of the 'Bloody Hundredth' attack an oil refinery near Hamburg while under attack from 262 jets, Me 109's and Fw 190's. The 100th. Bomb Group lost 12 planes on this mission. Aircraft depicted in this print include the lead aircraft (no name), "White Cargo" (second aircraft), and "The All American Girl" in Olive Drab paint (third aircraft).

Overall Size: 24" x 34" (Approx.) ca. 58 cm x 87 cm

Group Edition of 120 prints

Includes 108 SIGNATURES of aircrew and groundcrew. This Edition is SOLD OUT

Combatants' Edition of 30 prints

Includes FOURTEEN signatures: EIGHT B-17 aircrew signatures and SIX Luftwaffe fighter pilots' signatures: Oberleutnant Walter Schuck, Unteroffizier Heinz Kern, Feldwebel Dieter Weinitschke, Lieutenant Freiherr von Podewils, Oberleutnant Ernst Scheufele and Feldwebel Oscar Boesch. B-17 aircrew signatures to be announced, but will include 'Hong Kong' Wilson, Robert Rosenthal, Harry Crosby, Owen Roane, Glen Rojohn, Robert Wolff, General Jeffrey, Chuck Harding, Grant Fuller and many other B-17 veterans.

Limited Edition of 235 prints (7-B-17 signatures)

Complete Aircrew Edition, 135 prints (10 B-17 sig)

Artist's Proofs of 35 prints (20 B-17 signatures)

Remarqued Edition of 25 prints (With TEN B-17 aircrew and SIX Luftwaffe signatures)

50 Studio Edition signed by artist only

www.Luftfahrtkunst.de